DUTIES OF OFFICERS and GENERAL COUNCIL DELEGATES

Executive Committee – The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary and the Treasurer as voting members. This committee shall administer the business affairs of the local between local meetings. If there is a local officer vacancy, the remaining local officers can fill that vacancy with a current local officer by holding a vote of the remaining local officers.

General Council Delegates. Every Sublocal in SEIU Local 503, OPEU has the right to a minimum of one delegate. Delegate strength is based on membership, with one delegate for each one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof. The number of delegates will be determined by the December membership report or by the average annual membership of the previous twelve (12) months, whichever is higher. Alternate delegates are elected for the purpose of filling any delegate vacancies that may arise. Delegates attend the Union’s biannual General Council as voting members; presenting any resolution which the Sublocal may deem necessary for the good of the Union; working for the adoption of said resolution in conjunction with member delegates of other Sublocals. After General Council, it is the responsibility of the delegate to bring any new information to the Sublocal meeting.
