If the Employer is unable to accommodate an Employee’s request for Personal Leave, the Employer shall provide reasons and alternative options for accommodating the Employee’s request, e.g., rescheduling, postponing. Employees returning from Personal Leave lasting twelve months or less will be returned to the same position held before the leave and number of scheduled hours, but not necessarily to the same client(s).

Section 2: Return from leave of absence
The Employee returning from an authorized leave of absence is entitled to return to his/her same position. The Employer will make a good faith effort to reinstate Employees returning from an authorized leave of absence to their previous or similar assignment and schedule. An employee who fails to return to work within 3 working days of the expiration of a leave, and/or has not obtained an extension of the leave prior to its expiration will be considered to have voluntarily terminated employment.

Section 3: Return to work program
When feasible, the Employer will provide alternative work opportunities to employees injured on the job. The Employer shall work closely with the employee and his/her physician to determine if and when the employee can return to modified duty, and what assignments and/or activity level restrictions must be adhered to.

Article 23. CASELOAD

Section 1:
The Company and the union agree that there is a jointly-held interest in Employees receiving full-time work whenever possible; that Employees work as many hours as they are able and willing to work, up to 40 hours per week; that the Employer be able to serve as many hours as it is authorized to provide; and that clients receive their hours of care and support when they want them.

Section 2:
The Company agrees to continue its practice of caseload flexibility. Caseload assignments shall be made in accordance with such criteria as mutual acceptability and compatibility of client and employee, special needs involved, special skills required, the number of hours the employee is willing to handle, location, length of commute and similar factors.

Section 3:
It is recognized that the Company may discontinue an employee’s assignments in accordance with such criteria as mutual acceptability and compatibility of client and employee, special needs and special skills required by the case. The Company will make every reasonable effort to avoid such instances of discontinuation, but in such circumstances where it is necessary, the Company shall make its' best efforts to provide such employee with a comparable assignment.

Section 4:
When an employee wants an additional assignment, a change of assignment, or additional hours, the employee shall contact his or her supervisor who will enter the employees’ name into a log kept for this purpose. The employee is encouraged to submit any assignment requests in writing.
Section 5:
The Company agrees to maintain a log of available employees. Wherever practicable, assignments shall be made from this file in accordance with the Company’s evaluation of each case’s complexity. All things being equal, the most senior qualified employee in the file shall be offered the assignment. If this employee refuses the assignment, it shall be offered to the next most senior qualified employee, and so on. It is agreed that because of requirements of timelines contained in contracts, the Company is required only to make a good faith effort to comply with this section. Further, the Union and Company agree that the employee will document in writing refusal of an assignment when they next visit the office.

The Employer encourages and agrees to accept new worker referrals from the Union and afford them consideration for employment.

Article 24. SENIORITY

Section 1: General
Employees completing the probationary period shall be credited with seniority retroactive to date of hire. Seniority shall be defined as the length of service within the bargaining unit from date of hire. Seniority shall be used to determine wage rates and entitlement to other benefits as specified in this agreement.

Section 2: Termination
Seniority shall be terminated for discharge for just cause, voluntary quit, or failure to return to work after recall in accordance with the provision of Section 5 of this article. In cases of voluntary quit, the Company at its’ sole discretion may choose to re-hire an employee at previous tenure.

Section 3: Work assignments
In all matters relative to new work assignments and opportunities for additional work, the principle of seniority shall prevail, provided, however, that new work assignments and/or the assignment of additional work shall not result in overtime and/or unreasonable travel costs.

It is further understood that, due to language requirements, skill requirement and/or “consumer preference,” the Employer may bypass a senior employee who, by virtue of seniority would be given a particular client assignment. In such cases, the assignment will be given to the most senior available employee who can satisfy language/skill requirements and/or “consumer preference.” Additionally, in such cases the Employer shall give the bypassed employee the next opportunity for assignment of additional work, subject to the provisions of this section.

Section 4: Layoffs
A layoff is defined as a permanent reduction in the number of employees employed by the Employer in the branch or in an office. In the event of a need for a reduction in force, the Employer will meet with the Union as far in advance as possible to identify the reasons requiring the reduction and the number of Employees affected.
If layoffs are required, the least senior employee(s) in a branch office shall be laid off first provided that those employees remaining on the job in that branch office are qualified to perform the work remaining, and provided further that the Employer is not required to reassign an Employee to a work assignment requiring more than an hour additional travel time (by auto) between clients. The Employer agrees to provide ten (10) days’ notice of layoff to affected employees.

An Employee subject to layoff or reassignment may decline the new assignment(s) if the employee feels unqualified to provide the care required or if the additional assignment(s) results in more than forty-five (45) minutes travel time (by auto) from home to the first client of the day or from the last client of the day back to the employee’s home.

Section 5: Recall
Employees shall be recalled in order of seniority (the most senior being recalled first) provided that those recalled are qualified to perform the work assigned.

To be eligible for recall, a laid-off employee must keep the Employer informed of his/her current address and phone number. The Employer shall notify laid-off workers of recall by certified letter. When offered re-employment from layoff, the Employee must indicate acceptance and availability for work within five (5) days of receipt of letter unless unusual circumstances prohibit return within that time period.

Article 25. RECORDS AND PAY PERIODS

Section 1:
Employees shall be furnished a copy of their itemized deductions each pay period, which shall include the current hours worked, current wages earned, current wage rate, cumulative wages to date, and any regular itemized deductions, including any duly authorized dues deduction, in accordance with the Companies payroll procedures.

Section 2:
Upon no less than seven (7) calendar days’ notice to the Company, a duly authorized representative of the Union may, during normal business hours, examine time sheets, work production or other records that pertain to an employee’s compensation and/or fringe benefits, in case of a dispute as to contributions and/or pay. The Union shall not exercise this right so as to be disruptive of the Company’s business.

Section 3:
Payment of wages at a minimum shall be twice monthly unless such pay schedule is altered by agreement between the parties. The company shall make the pay schedule available to all employees. If a payday falls on a Saturday, the check will be distributed the preceding Friday. If a payday falls on a Sunday, checks will be distributed on the following Monday, unless the Monday distribution date is one of the recognized holidays, in which case the checks will be distributed on the preceding Friday, or unless the branch, as of the signing of this Agreement, distributes the checks on a Friday.
Section 4:
In the event an employee does not receive his/her paycheck on payday or is underpaid due to administrative error, a new check shall be issued within (3) business days from the pay date as long as the company is made aware of the problem on the pay date or the first business day following the pay date.

Section 5:
It is anticipated that during the life of this agreement the Company will continue use of and expand the use of Electronic Visit Verification (EVV), either through state or federal regulation or of its own volition. The implementation of EVV or other electronic system would be an alternative to the need and use of timesheets, travel/mileage and other employee paper documentation. The parties will negotiate over any impact this technology would have on other portions of the Agreement or the economic interests of employees. The Company believes this technology will enhance employee job satisfaction and efficiency. The Company agrees to meet with and seek input from the Union in the planning of training efforts and policy/procedure changes required by the use of this technology prior to implementing this program in any state and to review its impact and identify areas needing improvement after implementation.

Article 26. ADHERENCE TO EXISTING STATUTES

The parties agree to abide by all applicable municipal ordinances and state and federal statutes, including but not limited to any and all statutes pertaining to discrimination in employment and wage and hour compliance, to the extent said ordinances or statutes have an impact upon the working conditions of the bargaining unit employees.

Article 27. PAST PRACTICE

Subject to the other provisions of the Agreement, all conditions relating to wages, hours of work, and other terms, conditions and benefits of employment shall be maintained as in effect at the signing of this Agreement.

Article 28. HOME CARE ADVOCACY DAY

Requests for additional days may be granted on a branch by branch basis and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied by the employer.

The Company agrees that in cases where the 15% allotment is unmet, employees participating in Home Care Advocacy Day may request additional paid leave days for advocacy work and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.
Home Care Advocacy Days are for the general purpose of public action and advocacy to any state or federal government, legislature or congress on issues related to home care or home health services and other mutually beneficial legislation, as agreed to by both parties in advance.

The Union shall designate in writing to the Employer the employees requesting such leave at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance, except in emergency situations with the agreement of both parties. Leave requests shall take client needs into consideration, but shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer. The Employer shall communicate promptly with the Union concerning any difficulties in granting leave requests.

months, shall then lose eligibility for full-time benefits and will no longer accrue full-time benefits. In addition, health insurance benefits will cease on the last day of the month in which the employee eligibility ends. In such case COBRA benefits will be offered to the employee.

Regarding Collaborative Collective Bargaining Process
Agreement By and Between Addus Healthcare (the "Employer") and Service Employees
International Union Local 503 (the "Union")

Purpose: The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain quality client services and further labor management partnership by establishing a collaborative process to work through unresolved issues in collective bargaining using mediation and interest arbitration if necessary.

Duration and Authority: The process set out below will apply to the current and any subsequent negotiations for a successive collective bargaining agreement between Addus and the Union. To the extent the process is invoked, all then existing- terms and conditions of employment shall remain in effect until the parties reach agreement on a successor collective bargaining agreement or until an arbitrator issues an Award in an Interest Arbitration proceeding.

Process: In the event the Union and the Employer are unable to reach agreement on a complete collective bargaining agreement in current or subsequent negotiations, the Union and the Employer agree to the following procedure:

1) At any point after the commencement of negotiations either party may request the assistance of a mediator through the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) by requesting that FMCS provide the parties with a list of seven (7) individuals located in the Oregon/Washington/California areas qualified to serve as a mediator and as an Interest Arbitration Arbitrator;
2) Within five (5) days of receiving the list of Mediator/Arbitrator, representatives of the parties shall confer regarding selection of the Mediator/Arbitrator. If the representatives are able to mutually agree on a listed individual, they shall notify FMCS of their selection. Absent agreement, the representatives shall select a Mediator/Arbitrator by the method of alternate striking names with the order of striking being determined by toss of a coin.

3) If, by the time of expiration of the then current contract, the parties have not reached agreement on a complete collective bargaining agreement, the Mediator/Arbitrator and the parties shall schedule an Interest Arbitration hearing that shall take place within twenty-one (21) days of the expiration of the collective bargaining agreement unless the parties mutually agree, in writing, to a longer period.

4) No less than five (5) days prior to the commencement of the scheduled Interest Arbitration hearing, the parties shall exchange, in writing, their respective Last Best Offer (LBO) on all open issues. All unopened provisions in the then current collective bargaining agreement as well as all tentative agreements reached in the then ongoing negotiations shall be deemed part of each party's LBO.

5) The hearing shall be conducted in as expeditious manner as is feasible. The relevant criteria for submission of evidence and Mediator/Arbitrator determination shall include the following: the best interest of clients served; the Employer's overall economic situation and its ability to pay; fairness to employees and the Employer, including factors such as cost of living, affordability, comparability to other employers, and; other factors reasonably deemed appropriate by the arbitrator.

6) Following the close of the hearing, the parties will submit written argument to the Mediator/Arbitrator within fourteen (14) days of the close of the hearing absent mutual agreement for a longer period; the Mediator/Arbitrator shall issue his/her award within thirty (30) days of receipt of the parties' written arguments. The determination of the Mediator/Arbitrator shall be binding on each party and not subject to any form of appeal or challenge for reasons other than fraud or unlawful behavior by any party or decision maker.
