BYLAWS

ARTICLE I – DUTIES OF THE LOCAL

Section 1: Vision Statement. We envision a just and vibrant membership where everyone is treated with dignity and respect, where all workers can provide for themselves and their families.

Purpose Statement. Our Union is a labor organization established to represent and work for the benefit of workers on matters of, including but not limited to, employment relations, collective bargaining and contract administration.

Our Union is committed to operating democratically, openly, and through the leadership of its members. We seek to empower our members and their communities to overcome injustice and inequity so that everyone has equal access to opportunity.

The Homecare Council serves to support, develop, and empower care providers in all our diversity and to ensure we:

- Have the tools, education and training necessary to succeed
- Have pathways for professional and economic advancement
- Know and exercise our rights
- Understand the true value of our Union
- Engage in ~~rightful~~ collective actions to increase political, economic, social and cultural power.

Section 2: Duties of the Local -

The duties of the local shall be to establish and maintain a system of governance whose main goal is to organize and unite bargaining unit members of Local 99, so as to bargain and maintain the collective bargaining agreement (-CBAs) for the benefit of those bargaining unit members. This includes, but is not limited to, developing and maintaining a multifaceted system of communications to facilitate the goals and duties of the local and inform all affected parties of all aspects of the local's work and its results, with particular emphasis on workers' rights and responsibilities as established in the CBA.

~~Section 1. The primary duties of the Local shall be to administer collective bargaining agreements for the betterment of the members of the Local, to develop a system of communication for bargaining information, to vote on ratification of the collective bargaining contract, to elect officers and area representatives from within and to foster and protect the general goals of the Union.~~

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Active membership is open to all SEIU Local 503, OPEU bargaining unit members in good ~~of~~standing of the Homecare Local 99.

ARTICLE III – ELECTIONS

Section 1. The term of office shall be two (2) years beginning May 1 of even numbered years.

Section 2. The President shall appoint a Nominations/Elections Committee of at least three (3) ~~active members to~~ who:

~~(a) Prepare, distribute, receive and count ballots; and (Ryders does that)~~

(a) Certify and announce the election results, ~~and~~

~~(b) Seek candidates for office in the local.~~

(b) Shall not run for any sublocal 99 office.

Section 3. Ample notice shall be given to the membership that the Committee is accepting names for nomination.

Section 4. The Chair of the Nomination/Election Committee shall cause a ballot to be prepared for election.

Section 5. Voting shall be by secret ballot and may be by direct mail or electronic ballot.

Section 6. Council Directors must live in the District they represent, or the closest adjacent district if they live out of state

~~the Homecare Local 99's District they are elected to represent~~ [see Article IV, Section 2].

Section 7. ~~Homecare Council Directors shall be elected on a highest vote getter basis. The top vote getter(s) for a District shall be elected as the Director(s). General Council Delegates shall be elected by a plurality where the highest vote getter shall win election based on the number of positions available. Statewide positions, Homecare Council District Directors, Bargaining Team members, and Bargaining Team alternates shall be elected using ranked choice voting. Members shall be entitled to vote ranking their first choice candidate, second choice, and onward. The total number of candidates which may be ranked may be limited by the elections committee, depending on the number of candidates filed, but shall not be limited to fewer than the top five preferred candidates if five or more candidates run for a position or fewer than the total number of positions available for election. If no candidate achieves a majority of votes necessary to win election, any candidates receiving less than 5% of first choice votes, or the candidate winning the least first choice votes if no candidate received less than 5% of first choice votes, shall be eliminated and the votes shall be recalculated considering the second choices of the voters whose first choice was eliminated. This process shall continue until a candidate has received the majority of the votes and wins election or, in the event no candidate has a majority, the highest vote getter after all rounds of ranked choices have been calculated. Reasonable rules regarding the administration of ranked choice voting may be promulgated by the independent election vendor and/or adopted by the Elections Committee.~~

Section 8. ~~Candidates wishing to run for a position on the Executive Committee should have served on the Homecare Council.~~ A member may only run for or accept nomination as a candidate for one (1) statewide position. Members may run for regional director positions in addition to a statewide position, but may only accept one position on the Homecare Council.

Section 9. No write-ins shall be permitted in any Homecare elections.

Section 10. In the event of a tie, the winner will be determined by the Elections Committee through the Randomized Alphabet published by the Oregon Secretary of State for the most recently held election. Winners will be chosen by last name.
