Ann-Marie Anderson

As a librarian at Tigard for the past 19+ years, I've seen the importance of our union voice firsthand. Our collective agreement means we don't have to negotiate important working conditions and benefits on our own. We have strength in numbers. Unions create a better and more just workplace. We must have officers representing our union. That's why I'm running for the position of Secretary/Treasurer.

Annie Greenwood-Sprague

I am running for the General Council Delegate position because I would like to learn more about our union and how I can be of service in the future. This position seems like the ideal way to further my Workers Rights goals. As unions simultaneously strengthen and come under attack, I want to make sure that I am doing my part to contribute to the cause.

In solidarity,

Annie Greenwood-Sprague
