Valeriya Brodnikova

I'm excited to support my fellow colleagues in any way I can as well as advocate for the rights and interests of our union members.

Rachel Maller

I would love to hold the position of Membership Officer to further strengthen the bonds within our union. In this role, I can help manage our membership data and produce quarterly update reports. Additionally, I can continue organizing social events, such as happy hours, potlucks, and holiday celebrations. I would excitedly welcome new staff members to our union during orientation, sharing its purpose and importance. I am committed to listening before leading and collaborating wholeheartedly with my colleagues to advance our union. Thank you for considering my candidacy!

I am grateful for the nomination from my colleagues to run for president of Education Northwest's Local 905. I hope to create the conditions that support each member to be an engaged and informed leader in our union as well as in our workplace.
